Maher, Sergeant of Police, aged 27 years, residing at Tenth street and Columbia avenue, had a portion of his upper lip bitten off by a man he was attempting to arrest at an early hour yesterday morning. There being a larger quantity than the law allows to be stored in any house, it was taken possession of by the police. —Sarah Tutis, colored, aged forty-five years, residing in Lawrence street, died yesterday, in the Pennsylvania Hospital, from burns received from her clothing accidentally catching fire. —Lewis Foster, who was stabbed in Ninth street, below Sanson, at a saloon, on Monday morning, has last and removed to the hospital, has so far improved as to be considered out of danger. —The lot of ground northwest corner of Broad street and Girard avenue, containing about 280 feet on Broad street, was sold on Saturday to M. Verdict, "Death from heart disease." —An unknown white man was found drowned yesterday afternoon at Lombard street wharf. He was apparently about forty-five years of age, 5 feet 8 inches in height, and was clad in a brown coat, vest and pants, and low shoes. He had sandy hair, and weighed about 200 pounds. —Interesting Sunday School exercises were engaged in yesterday afternoon at the Moravian Church, corner of Franklin and Thompson streets. Addresses were made by Rev. Dr. Cole, of the Baptist Church; Rev. H. S. Hoffman, Henry A. Bower, and others. The different classes contributed for mission purposes during the quarter $105.89. There are also two Bible classes, male and female, composed of adult members. A large number of persons were in attendance. —About two hundred roughs assembled yesterday in a deep ravine in Fairmount Park to witness a prize-fight. The residence of Park Sergeant Stine is close by, and Mrs. Stine seeing the gathering, sounded the Park Guard call, which attracted Guards Fox and Delaney, upon whose approach the crowd, being warned by a sentinel stationed on a hill for that purpose, fled in all directions. —Francis L. Hoffman, aged forty-eight years, residing at Thirty-sixth street and Girard avenue, committed suicide, by hanging himself to the rafters of his house, early yesterday morning. The Committee of Ways and Means, it is thought, will strike out this legal feature from the Internal Revenue bill. —At a meeting held in Nashville on Saturday, Congressional interference in the affairs of the State was protested against, on the ground that the population are as quiet and orderly as the same number of people anywhere. The same despatch states that on the previous Thursday evening a Judge was murdered at Decatur by a party of armed men. —Venezuela is much behind in the payment of the American claims against her. Recently her Government called a conference of the representatives of creditor nations, and proposed that the payments should be allowed to cease for three or four months, that measures might be had for suppressing the revolutions. The proposition being rejected, the Government intimated, nevertheless, that the payments would be suspended. Tugs were at once dispatched to tow her into harbor. —Forster's Educational bill was passed to a second reading in the House of Commons on Friday—an amendment suggested by Mr. Bright, that its basis should be religious equality, being withdrawn. —An Italian Bishop officiated at the mass for the soul of Count Montalembert in Rome, the Pope forbidding the French prelates to celebrate it, considering it a demonstration of hostility to the Council.

THE POTTSVILLE CONFERENCE.

From Our Own Correspondent. POTTSVILLE, March 21, 1870. FOURTH DAY. Saturday's devotional services were conducted by Rev. W. J. Paxson. The following local preachers were elected to ordination as deacons—William McArthur, William Marshall, Jacob Pilling, John H. Smith, Josiah Bawden, William H. West, Lemuel Bancroft, and John Smith. The following local deacons were elected to office—L. H. Hildy, William Jones, and Rev. George S. Broadbent. Bishop Simpson stated that by telegram intelligence had been received of the death of the only son of Rev. W. H. Elliott, which event took place during the evening of yesterday. A committee was appointed to prepare suitable resolutions. The young preachers, candidates for ordination and election to membership in the conference, were called up for public examination. Bishop Simpson conducted the exercises, delivering an impressive address. The following were then elected—Edwin C. Griffiths, Hiram U. Seabring, John W. Knapp, and James C. Wood. Rev. Dr. Butler addressed the conference on the American and Foreign Christian Union. The Aid Society made a report, showing that success has attended its efforts. The collections have exceeded any former years. Addresses in behalf of the worn-out preachers were delivered by Amos C. Phelps and Thomas T. Tasker, Esq., of Philadelphia. The former presented the conference with a bond of $1000, the interest of which forever is for worn-out preachers. The following were admitted as preachers on trial in the conference—George A. Wolf, Maria Graves, Joseph Brockbank, John H. Wood, John D. Falsome, Joseph B. Graeff, O. L. Haddock, and Thomas Cundy. Adjourned with the benediction by the Rev. Pennell Cooke. The time of the morning session was extended, and did not close until after 1 o'clock. For this reason our readers were not furnished with our usual telegraphic report of the proceedings. The business of the conference will be through in all probability by this evening, when it is expected the conference will adjourn sine die.

PROPOSALS FOR FRESH BEEF. OFFICE OF A. C. S., FRANKFORD ARSENAL, PHILADELPHIA. Sealed proposals, in duplicate, will be received by the undersigned at this office until 10 A. M., April 15, 1870, for furnishing the troops stationed at the Frankford Arsenal with fresh beef of good marketable quality, in equal proportions of fore and hind quarters, excluding necks, shanks, and kidney tail; the beef to be delivered free of cost to the troops, in such quantities and on such days as may be from time to time required by the proper authority, and the contract to continue in force six months, or such less time as the Commissary-General shall direct, and subject to his approval, commencing on the 1st day of May, 1870.

Upon acceptance of the contract, a bond in the sum of six hundred dollars will be required for the faithful performance of the contract. To enable city dealers to compete intelligently with local parties, it may be stated that the contract, together with sales to officers and families on the post, usually averages from $400 to $450 per month; and it requires a wagon to visit the post four times a week, and that a person who should use proper means to do so could not doubt create a remunerative outlet for his trade in connection with his contract engagements.
